ODD FELLOWS OPEN THE SEASON

Noble Grand Upton Installed His Son in Shetucket Lodge—Visiting Officials Present.

The fall season in Odd Fellow circles was opened by Shetucket lodge, No. 27, I. O. O. F., with work in the initiatory degree at its meeting in Odd Fellows hall Tuesday evening, two candidates being on hand for the degree. The presence of visiting officers from New London gave an added impetus to the evening and a good sized attendance of the members was on hand to welcome the visitors who were Deputy Grand Master Fred C. Burrows, District Deputy Harry Hirsch and District Deputy Decker, all of New London.
Mr. Hirsch is deputy for Shetucket lodge.

The interest of the evening was further heightened by the fact that the Noble Grand George B. Upton of Shet-ucket lodge was to initiate his own son, H. Turner Upton, who was one of the two candidates for the degree.
The work was carried out in commendable shape under the direction of the noble grand, assisted by Vice Grand Frank S. Smith and the staff of officers.
